Promise CONFERENCE 2012

Training Professionals in Mental Health Promotion Conference

On the 13th September 2012
At Hendon Campus, Middlesex University, Hendon, London, NW4 4BT
The aim of the conference is to present state of the art research and best practice in mental health promotion training for health professionals. The conference will be a platform for the launch of newly developed European guidelines for mental health promotion training, with recommendations for key professional groups (psychiatrists, psychologists, nurses and social workers), and themes such as depression and suicidality, alcohol and drugs and, specifically for mental health service users, healthy living.

Dr Lynne Friedli – works across Europe on the development of public mental health, as well as delivering training and policy advice within the UK.

Ms Barbara Battel-Kirk – Research, consultancy and project management on health promotion and multidisciplinary public health.

Professor Peter Ryan - Professor of Mental Health at Middlesex University.

Professor Czeslaw Czabala - Deputy Director of Research for the Institute of Psychiatry and Neurology, Warsaw, Poland.

The Conference is now open for submission of abstracts. The closing date is 20th May 2012.
